Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder
Grant Street Securities, Inc.
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Grant Street Securities, Inc. (a wholly owned subsidiary of Grant Street Group, Inc.) as of December 31, 2007. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Grant Street Securities, Inc. at December 31, 2007, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A. Reporting Entity

Grant Street Securities, Inc. (the Company), a Pennsylvania corporation, was incorporated July 26, 1999 and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Grant Street Group, Inc. (the Parent). The Company is a registered broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and effective July 30, 2007 became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). Prior to its membership in FINRA, the Company was a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD).

The Company is a fully disclosed introducing broker-dealer. The Company is permitted to execute riskless principal transactions in certain types of securities with qualified broker-dealers and institutional investors. Under such an arrangement, the Company is permitted to execute securities trades and clear them through a clearing broker. The clearing broker processes and settles the transactions and maintains detailed customer records.

The Company commenced its initial broker-dealer activity with respect to municipal bond trades in March 2000. The Parent conducted secondary auctions for which the Company acted as the introducing broker-dealer. The Parent idled its secondary market auction platform in May 2000 and has not conducted any trades since.

B. Estimates

The preparation of the statement of financial condition in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

C. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to cash and have original maturities of less than 90 days.

D. Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109 (SFAS No. 109), Accounting for Income Taxes. Under SFAS No. 109, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis.

GRANT STREET SECURITIES, INC.

The Company is included in the consolidated Federal income tax return of the Parent and files a separate company state return. For financial statement purposes, the Company calculates its income tax provision on a separate company basis in accordance with an informal tax sharing agreement with its Parent. Deferred income taxes are provided for temporary differences between the tax basis of an asset or liability and its reported amount in the financial statements at the maximum statutory tax rate. Deferred tax assets are provided for operating losses that are available to offset future taxable income.

At December 31, 2007, the Company had a net potential deferred tax asset of approximately $7,000, attributable to Pennsylvania net operating loss carryforwards. The Company has approximately $102,000 in Pennsylvania net operating loss carryforwards to offset future taxable income through 2026. A valuation allowance has been established because realization is not considered likely.

Subsequent to December 31, 2007, the Parent elected S Corporation status for Federal and state purposes to be effective January 1, 2008. Effective with the election, the stockholders of an S Corporation are taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. In connection with the Parent's S Corporation election, the Company has elected to be treated as a Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary (QSSS).

Note 2 - Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC's) Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 and is required to maintain minimum net capital of the greater of 6⅓% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined, or $5,000. Further, the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital is not to exceed 15 to 1. The Company is required to perform net capital and aggregate indebtedness calculations on a quarterly basis. At December 31, 2007, the Company had net capital, as defined, of $52,209 which was $47,209 in excess of its December 31, 2007 net capital requirement of $5,000. In addition, the Company maintained an aggregate indebtedness ratio of .10 to 1 at December 31, 2007.

Advances, dividend payments and other equity withdrawals are subject to certain notification and other provisions of the net capital rules of the SEC.

The Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, and claims an exemption from SEC Rule 15c3-3.
